

David and Goliath

1 Samuel 17:32-49

William A. Ogden, pub. 1887

When the shep - herd boy met Go - li - ath tall he was not a - fraid; God was o - ver all.
How the gi - ant cursed and came out to fight with the shep - herd boy in the bright sun - light.

He took five smooth stones from the bab - bling brook, and with his sling that is all he took.
Da - vid took a stone, slung it round and round then the gi - ant came tumb - ling to the ground.

Refrain

God is a - ble to de - li - ver me. God is a - ble to de - li - ver me.

Though the Gi - ant's near I will ne - ver fear My God is ab - le to de - li - ver me.
